CANADA DAY – JULY 1

In the course of Canadian history, there have been many men & women who have shaped the Church in Canada. Some sacrificed their lives and many experienced hardships for the faith. Let us pray to these saints, martyrs, blessed and venerables to make us a nation united in peace with one another, ever pleasing to God, Our Father.

Happy Canada Day!!!

Please phone the cemetery in the event of rain.

ST. ANTHONY MARY ZACCARIA

On July 5, the Catholic Church remembers Saint Anthony Mary Zaccaria. A renowned preacher and promoter of Eucharistic adoration, he founded the order of priests now known as the Barnabites. In 2001, Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, wrote the preface for a book on St. Anthony Mary Zaccaria, praising the saint as “one of the great figures of Catholic reform in the 1500s,” who was involved “in the renewal of Christian life in an era of profound crisis.” The Italian saint, Cardinal Ratzinger wrote, “deserves to be rediscovered” as “an authentic man of God and of the Church, a man burning with zeal, a demanding forger of consciences, a true leader able to convert and lead others to good.” The name of the book is, Igniting the Flame of Faith: St. Anthony Mary Zaccaria (1502-1539)

SOCIETY OF ST VINCENT DE PAUL

At our parish, the Society has been visiting homes and handing out food vouchers to those families in need. If you feel the need to help, you may volunteer as a member. If this is not possible, you can donate financially to this cause at our parish. A tax receipt will be given annually for a minimum donation of $20.

SAVE SUMMER JOBS

The fight over the federal government's unjust application requirements for the Canada Summer Jobs program continues. Cardinal Collins has written the following letter:

My dear friends,

I wish to draw your attention to a deeply troubling issue that has negatively impacted the charitable activities of thousands of groups across the county, including dozens in our archdiocese. In late 2017, the federal government revised its application requirements for the 2018 Canada Summer Jobs program, forcing all applicants to indicate support for a clause that promotes values that go against our faith, such as abortion, in order to be considered. We cannot comply with this unjust requirement.

Many groups formally protested the change by applying for the grants but refusing to check the box associated with the offending statement, knowing their applications would be rejected but ensuring their concerns were registered. Hundreds of other groups were so discouraged they did not even apply.

In the Archdiocese of Toronto alone, at least 150 summer jobs have been jeopardized by the new application requirements. A summer camp for deaf children, employment for developmentally challenged young people, students cutting grass or helping with the gardening, people welcoming newcomers to our country – these important community services will be most impacted.

Faith communities across the country (and politicians from all parties) have condemned the new requirement, including the Canadian Council of Imams, the Rabbinical Council of America, the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada and the Canadian Council of Christian Charities. We should all take note when a government claims to value the contributions of faith communities but requires them to profess a set of values which is against their faith in order to be eligible for government funding.

The government must abide by the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms in its treatment of law-abiding individuals and groups. The fundamental freedoms of conscience and religion, thought, belief, opinion and expression, as guaranteed in the Charter, must be respected and affirmed in legislation, regulations and policy.

Many parishes in the archdiocese are holding collections to support the local groups denied funding this year. I encourage you to donate through your parish or online at: <http://bit.ly/donatesummerjobs> More importantly, I invite everyone to visit www.savesummerjobs.ca so you can send a letter directly to your local MP, expressing your deep concern. Respectful communication regarding this unjust policy is very important. The process should take no more than three minutes. As we continue to pray for all those elected to political office, be assured of my gratitude for all that you do to preserve and sustain the faith. St. Michael the Archangel, patron saint of the Archdiocese of Toronto, pray for us.

Sincerely in Christ,

Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto
