FORMED.ORG –

A SUMMER SCHOOL ON THE EUCHARIST

From the 17th to the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Gospel passage is taken from the sixth chapter of the Gospel according to John, which contains the Bread of Life Sermon. It is an excellent time to learn more about the Most Blessed Sacrament. Formed has a series called Presence and an excellent talk by Dr. Brant Pitre on the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist. Check out the site and register for free using the parish code CGMJJW.

SNOW REMOVAL

You might not be thinking about snow with the weather we have been having, but we are assured that winter will eventually be here. Do you know any hardworking crew who would be willing to take on the job of being our snow removal contractors this winter? It's a big job: Roncesvalles and Westminster, the steps and ramp, the driveway and parking lot, all the entrances to the church and rectory. We need to have our access to the church available and safe in time for Mass each day, and the sidewalks cleared of snow and ice whenever necessary. If you are interested, or if you know someone who might be interested in this job, please contact the rectory.

DONATIONS OF RELIGIOUS BOOKS

Parish Book Table at Polish Festival (Sept 15 – 16) hosted by Legion of Mary

The Legion of Mary will have a book sale table at the Polish Festival this year. Please donate to this effort by bringing religious books and pamphlets to the back of the church after all Masses starting TODAY! A Legionary will be there to receive your donations. If you would like to volunteer to help with the table, please advise the Legionary receiving the books. All proceeds will go to St Vincent De Paul Parish.

Thank you for your generosity!

MARY OUR QUEEN

You will find, that ...as in Mary's prerogatives themselves, there is the same careful reference to the glory of him who gave them to her. You know, when first he went out to preach, she kept apart from him; she interfered not with his work; and, even when he was gone up on high, yet she, a woman, went not out to preach or teach, she seated not herself in the Apostolic chair, she took no part in the priest's office; she did but humbly seek her Son in the daily Mass of those, who, though her ministers in heaven, were her superiors in the Church on earth. Nor, when she and they had left this lower scene, and was a Queen upon her Son's right hand, not even did she ask him to publish her name to the ends of the world, or to hold her up to the world's gaze, but she remained waiting for the time, when her own glory should be necessary for his....

In you, O Mary, is fulfilled, as we can bear it, an original purpose of the Most High. He once had meant to come on earth in heavenly glory, but we sinned; and then he could not safely visit us, except with a shrouded radiance and a bedimmed majesty, for he was God. So he came himself in weakness, not in power; and he sent you a creature, in his stead, with a creature's comeliness and lustre suited to our state. And now your very face and form, dear Mother, speak to us of the eternal; not like earthly beauty, dangerous to look upon, but like the morning star, which is your emblem, bright and musical, breathing purity, telling of heaven, and infusing peace. O harbinger of day! O hope of the pilgrim! Lead us still as you have led; in the dark night, across the bleak wilderness, guide us on to our Lord Jesus, guide us home.
