VOCATION DISCERNMENT

It's a simple concept: love God with your whole being and put that love into practice. How is God calling you to love? Have you considered the way of loving called 'priesthood' or 'religious life'? If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, please talk to one of the Fathers of the Oratory or contact Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director at 416-968-0997 or email: vocations@archtoronto.org

ORATORY BOOKSTALL (AT HOLY FAMILY)

Spiritual Direction from Dante

Fr. Paul Pearson of the Toronto Oratory has published a commentary on Dante's Inferno. $33

From Islam to Christ by Derya Little (not her real name) was born in Turkey. She read her way into the Catholic Church and had to overcome great difficulties even to find a Catholic Church in Ankara. Her first-hand knowledge of Islam and her persuasive criticism of it are the reason why she uses a pseudonym. An inspiring story that should help us to appreciate the gift of faith in Christ and his Church. $26

THE SACRAMENTS: Discovering the Treasures of Divine Life by Fr. Matthew Kauth. Solid Catholic theology with spiritual teaching. Fr. Kauth shows how the sacraments, sacred signs, actually accomplish in our souls what they signify. Highly recommended. $8

CANONIZATION OF BLESSED JOHN HENRY NEWMAN

The Vatican announced on Monday, July 1, that Blessed Cardinal John Henry Newman will be canonized on October 13 in Rome. Here is an excerpt of the homily of Pope Benedict XVI at the Beatification Mass of Cardinal Newman.

...While it is John Henry Newman's intellectual legacy that has understandably received most attention in the vast literature devoted to his life and work, I prefer on this occasion to conclude with a brief reflection on his life as a priest, a pastor of souls. The warmth and humanity underlying his appreciation of the pastoral ministry is beautifully expressed in another of his famous sermons: "Had Angels been your priests, my brethren, they could not have consoled with you, sympathized with you, have had compassion on you, felt tenderly for you, and made allowances for you, as we can; they could not have been your patterns and guides, and have led you on from your old selves into a new life, as they can who come from the midst of you" ("Men, not Angels: the Priests of the Gospel", Discourses to Mixed Congregations, 3). He lived out that profoundly human vision of priestly ministry in his devoted care for the people of Birmingham during the years that he spent at the Oratory he founded, visiting the sick and the poor, comforting the bereaved, caring for those in prison. No wonder that on his death so many thousands of people lined the local streets as his body was taken to its place of burial not half a mile from here. One hundred and twenty years later, great crowds have assembled once again to rejoice in the Church's solemn recognition of the outstanding holiness of this much-loved father of souls. What better way to express the joy of this moment than by turning to our heavenly Father in heartfelt thanksgiving, praying in the words that Blessed John Henry Newman placed on the lips of the choirs of angels in heaven;

Praise to the Holiest in the height

And in the depth be praise;

In all his words most wonderful,

Most sure in all his ways!

(The Dream of Gerontius)

Fr. Michael Eades will be leading a pilgrimage to Rome, Assisi, Birmingham, Oxford and London, "Following the Footsteps of Newman" from October 11 – 20. The cost will be $3,900. If you are interested, please contact Halina at 905-886-0232 ext 315 or halina@ihtours.com

WORDS OF ST BONAVENTURE

Acknowledging Jesus

As for you, chosen servant of Christ, I know that you desire Christ; I know that all your strength is directed toward the end – the discovery of the means by which you may meet the eternal King in a close union and embrace. So now, prompt your heart and your soul; lift up your whole mind and consider as intently as you can:

If good things are so pleasant even when enjoyed singly, imagine how delightful beyond delight that Good must be which contains the delightfulness of all goods! If life created is so precious, imagine how enrapturing must be Life All-creating! If salvation is our best end as an acquired state, how transporting must be Salvation Itself, the Author of all deliverance!...What will man have who possesses that Good, and what will he not have? Assuredly, he will have everything that satisfies him, and nothing that displeases. Eye has not seen nor ear heard, nor has it entered into the heart of man what bodily and spiritual goods he will enjoy in heaven. Why, then, servant of God, do you wander so far, seeking delights for your body and mind? Love one single Good in which all goods are found, and that will suffice; desire simple Good, which all good, and that will be enough...

The more we love God here, the more we shall enjoy God there. Therefore, love God much in this life, and you shall enjoy him much in the next: let the love of God increase in you now, so that you may have then the fullness of his joy. This is the truth to be pondered in your mind, proclaimed by your tongue, loved in your heart, expressed by your lips; your soul should hunger, your body thirst, your substance crave for nothing but this until you enter the joy of your God, until you are clasped in your Lover's arms, until you are led into the chamber of your beloved Spouse who, with the Father and Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. Magnificat Magazine July 2017
