VOCATION DISCERNMENT

“You are the light of the world.” Are you willing to let your light shine as a priest, deacon, brother or sister? If you think God is calling you to a Church vocation, please speak to one of the Fathers of the Oratory or contact Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director by email: vocations@archtoronto.org or phone at 416-968-0997

PANCAKE SUNDAY – FEBRUARY 23

Pancakes, sausages, tea and coffee. Cost $10/family; $5/single. This takes the place of the coffee hour.

Catholics made pancakes because it was an easy way to use up milk, sugar, eggs, and butter in the house before 40 days of Lent began. Lent was a simpler diet, without the “fattening” foods.

HEARING CHRIST’S SUMMONS

All through our life Christ is calling us. He called us first in baptism, but afterwards also; whether we obey his voice or not, he graciously calls us still. If we fall from our baptism, he calls us to repent; if we are striving to fulfill our calling, he calls us on from grace to grace, and from holiness to holiness, while life is given us, Abraham was called from his home, Peter from his nets, Matthew from his office, Elisha from his farm, Nathanael from his retreat; we are all in course of calling, on and on, from one thing to another, having no resting place, but mounting towards our eternal rest, and obeying one command only to have another put upon us. He calls us again and again, in order to justify us again and again – and again and again, and more and more, to sanctify and glory us.

It were well if we understood this, but we are slow to master the great truth, that Christ is, as it were, walking among us, and by his hand, or eye, or voice, bidding us to follow him. We do not understand that his call is a thing which takes place now.

~ St. John Henry Newman
