SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

There is a special link on the Oratory website here with details about various Covid-19 protocols. Please check the link before heading off to church.

We owe a huge debt of thanks to the volunteers who are taking care of disinfecting the church after each Mass, and those who did cleaning and repair work during the months we were closed. If you can help, please contact Nikki at spnsvp@yahoo.ca

Please continue to cooperate with the instructions we are given: keeping distance, sanitizing our hands, etc. Please try not to touch the Communion rail. Now we are required under the city of Toronto by-law to wear masks in church, unless we are exempted. This is for the protection of others as the pandemic continues.

JULY 26, 2020

Like a Net Cast into the Sea

By the fact that Christ our Lord created the sky, earth, sea, and the great, many, and varied creatures in them, he gave wonderful evidence of his power. By the fact that he assumes human nature, acts the part of man, enters into the centuries, passes through the periods of life, teaches by word, works cures by his power, tells parables, gives examples, and manifests in himself the burden of our emotions—by all this he reveals that he has an indescribable affection of human love....

The Kingdom of heaven is like a net cast into the sea. This parable reveals why Christ chose fishermen to be his Apostles, and changed catchers of fish into fishers of men, that fishermen's practice might be recognized as a type of God's judgement.... Christ sent his fishermen—Peter, Andrew, James, and John, all of them approved for their skill—to the sea of this world. It was a sea swelling with its vain display, proud of its confusion, stormy because of factions, fluctuating through uncertainty, noisy with grievances, roaring with anger, shipwrecked by sins, and sunk into impiety. Come, follow me, he told them, and I will make you fishers of men.

Hence, he sent his fishers forth with nets woven of the precepts of the Law and of the Gospel, hemmed with counsels, expanded with gifts of virtues and with grace, fit to gather an unceasing catch into the shelter of the Gospel. Now, brethren, right now is the time of this catch. Christ's nets are being drawn through the tribes and nations now. Throughout the whole world they are bringing in teeming catches, without discrimination of persons.

St. Peter Chrysologus
