MARY, MOTHER OF GOD

If Mary is really the one giving birth to God, if she bears him who is the death of death and is life in the full sense of the word, this being the Mother of God is really a “new birth” (nova nativitas): a new way of giving birth inserted into the old way, just as Mary is the New Covenant in the midst of the Old Covenant, even as a member of the Old Covenant. This birth is no dying, but only a becoming, a bursting forth of life that casts off dying and leaves it behind once and for all. The title “Mother of God” points, on the one hand, back to the Virgin: this life is not received through the everyday dying and becoming but is pure beginning. On the other hand, the title points to the Assumption: from this birth comes only life, no death. This new “generation” does not demand the surrender of the old self as its sine qua non, rather it effects the ultimate validation of the world.

Pope Benedict XVI, Benedictus

HOLY NAME OF JESUS PRAYER

Jesus, yours is the name above all names; We offer you our heartfelt praise and gratitude. Deepen in us an abiding reverence for your Holy Name.

Jesus, Saviour, heal the wounds within that our sin and fear have inflicted. Set us free from all that hinders us from rejoicing in your boundless love and sharing your goodness with others.

Jesus, Friend, draw us ever closer to you. We entrust all we carry in our hearts to your abundant mercy.

Jesus, Lord, pour out The Holy Spirit upon your people that our lives may overflow with your grace, our days be filled with your love, and all our actions shine with your light. Amen.
