PRAYER TO ST VINCENT DE PAUL

O glorious Saint Vincent, heavenly patron of all charitable associations and father of all who are in misery, whilst thou wast on earth thou didst never cast out any who came to thee: ah, consider by what evils we are oppressed and come to our assistance! Obtain from thy Lord help for the poor, relief for the infirm, consolation for the afflicted, protection for the abandoned, a spirit of generosity for the rich, the grace of conversion for sinners, zeal for priests, peace for the Church, tranquility and order for all nations, and salvation for them all. Yea, let all men prove the effects of thy merciful intercession, so that, being helped by thee in the miseries of this life, we may be united to thee in the life to come, where there shall be no more grief, nor weeping, nor sorrow, but joy and gladness and everlasting happiness. Amen.

There will be a Sung English Mass on the feast of our parish's patron saint on Wednesday, September 27 at 8:00 p.m.

100TH ANNIVERSARY CORNER

Do you know your church?

Down the centre of the ceiling in the nave, we have five medallions connected to the Eucharist. The first medallion over the organ is of the pious pelican feeding its young with its own body. What does the second medallion represent? It shows a lamb standing on a book with a flag of victory. The medallion represents: 1) Jesus the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. 2) Jesus the Lamb of God who was slain, but rose, and lives forever to make intercession for us. 3) Jesus the Lamb of God who is offered up in every Mass by the words contained in the Missal on which he stands. 4) All of the above.

Last week's Answer: The Blessed Virgin Mary. St John tells us that when the wine ran out at the wedding at Cana the Mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

Trivia – St Vincent de Paul's Life and Times: In his late 30s, St Vincent de Paul set about to do something about the great poverty in Paris itself. What was one man amidst so many problems? From the beginning, he had helpers. His original helpers were the wealthy women of Paris whom he formed into a Confraternity of Charity. They not only collected money, but also helped directly in the work with the poor. Their charity began to reach outside of Paris. From this group of volunteers, a new religious order was founded and a new group of lay women was founded.

Wisdom from St Vincent de Paul

"God's works are not regulated by our plans and wishes. We should be content with making the best of the few talents he has placed in our hands, and not distress ourselves about having more or greater ones. If we are faithful in that which is little, he will place us over that which is great."

Saturday, September 16 is the 100th anniversary of the dedication of St Vincent de Paul Church. We will have a special Mass marking this significant anniversary on that date at 10:00 a.m.

Coffee House: St Vincent's Patio or Piazza is going strong. Deo gratias! It is open after the 9:30am Mass and 11:00am Mass! Krispy Kreme doughnuts, other sweets cookies, juice, tea, fresh ground coffee, and more! Thank you volunteers!
