100TH ANNIVERSARY CORNER

Do you know your church?

As we approach the sanctuary, we can see a fourth medallion on the ceiling depicting a seven branch candle stand. The candle stand represents the Holy Spirit and his seven gifts (wisdom, understanding, courage, counsel, piety, knowledge, and fear of the Lord). All the images in the centre of the ceiling lead us to the Holy Eucharist.

What does the Holy Spirit have to do with the Holy Eucharist? 1) The seven candles represent the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit which Christ's soul shares with us and increases in us at Mass. 2) The Holy Spirit draws us into the Mass and helps us believe in Christ, for “no one can say that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit.” 3) The Holy Spirit is the one who, through the words of Christ, transforms the bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ. 4) All of the above. 5) None of the above.

<https://form.jotform.com/kmichaeleadesjr/seven-branch-candle-knowyourchurch8>

Last week's Answer: All of the above. Our Lord nourishes us with the Eucharist so that we can make the journey to heaven. He satisfies us in every Mass with every grace and heavenly blessing. And that miracle prepared his disciples for the miraculous change of the bread and wine at the Last Supper.

Trivia – St Vincent de Paul's Life and Times:

How did St Vincent die? He died on September 27, 1660 in Paris with the Holy Name of Jesus on his lips. He died in the same year as his spiritual friend and great helper, St Louise de Marillac. Let us invite our friends to the sung Mass this Wednesday, September 27, at 8pm in his honour and the party afterwards in the garden!. Let us beg St Vincent to give us a love for the holy Name of Jesus. May we too die with that Name on our lips. September 27 is St Vincent's birthday into heaven.
