MASS ATTENDANCE COUNT – TODAY!

The Archdiocese of Toronto has asked us to count the attendance at all Sunday Masses on this weekend, October 21-22.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY – TODAY!

There will be a second collection today for the Evangelization of the Nations, otherwise known as World Mission Sunday. This is a worldwide collection for the missionary church and it is our opportunity to assist at-need Catholic Communities globally. Offerings are combined with offerings from other Catholics around the world and distributed to missions and dioceses. We are called to share from our abundance with those less fortunate who lack the basic essentials to know, love and praise God.

Thank you for your support of this important work.

100TH ANNIVERSARY CORNER

Do you know your church?

We know that the five windows in the sanctuary teach us about the Holy Eucharist. In the centre, Christ's one sacrifice is depicted (renewed and made present in every Mass). When did he first offer his sacrifice? At the Last Supper (the window to the left of centre). When did he first change one thing into another? At the wedding feast of Cana (window on far left). When did God first prefigure the offering of bread and wine at the Last Supper? When Melchizedek, the king and priest of the most High God, offered bread and wine after Abraham's victory (window farthest to the right).

But why does the sanctuary also include a window of Christ ascending into heaven? What does the Ascension have to do with the Holy Eucharist?

1) When we receive Holy Communion, we receive the living Christ as He is now in heaven, risen and ascended. 2) The Mass is not only the memorial of Christ's passion, but also of his "resurrection from the dead and his glorious ascension into heaven." 3) Christ, our great high priest, has ascended to the Father's right hand to inaugurate the dispensing of his salvation through the sacraments. 4) None of the above. 5) All of the above.

Last week's Answer: Christ ascending into heaven.

Trivia – St Vincent de Paul's Life and Times:

Besides giving retreats to ordinands (men about to be ordained priests), St Vincent began something called "Tuesday Conferences." These were gatherings of already ordained priests at the church of St Lazare in Paris. After a period of prayer, St Vincent would chair a discussion among the priests about what it means to be a priest. Those gathered would share their thoughts and convictions. This spiritual dialogue was aimed at encouraging the priests in their pastoral ministry and sending them home with renewed zeal. The Tuesday Conferences began in 1633. By the time of St Vincent's death in 1660, 250 priests were attending each week. Over the years, many future bishops attended. Great ideals and reforms of the priesthood grew out of these small weekly meetings. "The kingdom of God is like leaven," Our Lord said. His work might seem invisible and insignificant, but a few chosen souls can spread the Gospel widely. "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed," Our Lord said. Let us do the good the Lord sets before us. However small it may seem at the beginning, his projects can bear great fruit.

Wisdom from St Vincent de Paul

"It is necessary to give oneself to God . . . in order to serve the poor . . . to go on Mission . . . to direct seminaries and ordinands."
