ST. ALOYSIUS SCROSOPPI, PRAY FOR US!!

Aloysius (Luigi) Scrosoppi (1804-1884) did not spend most of his long life as an Oratorian, but that was because political upheavals on more than one occasion suppressed the Oratory in Udine, his native city in the north-east of Italy. He is the founder of the Sisters of Providence, whose work it was to help orphans. These sisters are now active in many parts of the world. But the miracle which paved the way for his canonization was in favour of an Oratorian novice in South Africa who was dying of AIDS. The feast day of St Aloysius Scrosoppi is October 5.

On Saturday, October 5, there will be a Sung English Mass at 10:00 a.m. at Holy Family Church.

YEAR OF PRAYER – CORNER

If prayer is a vital and personal relationship with God, who can teach us to pray? Our Lord. One day his disciples saw him praying and asked him: "Lord, teach us to pray as John the Baptist taught his disciples" (Luke 11:1). Our Lord prayed in his human heart to his Heavenly Father.

But prayer is not only a living relationship with God the Father, it is also a living relationship with God the Son. Who can teach us how to prayer to Christ, the Son of the Living God? Who was the first human person to speak to Our Lord? His Mother. From the moment he entered the world in her womb, she began to related to her Son. She began to love Him and speak to Him. We catch a glimpse of how she prayed to Jesus at the wedding of Cana. She went up to him, having noticed a lack, and said to Him, "They have no wine" (John 2). In this request, she is teaching us how to present our needs and the needs of others to Christ.

But what is the best way to get close to Mary? Over and over again, the saints have told us. Repeatedly when Mary has appeared on earth (Lourdes, Fatima, etc.) she has asked for one thing. Pray the rosary. Will you join us?

JOIN US FOR ROSARY!

In October, we are trying to honour Our Lady of the Rosary. Everyday in our parish the rosary is prayed publicly. Monday – Thursday 8:40am
