YEAR OF PRAYER – CORNER

In the Hail Mary, after we greet the Queen of Heaven and speak of her as full of grace, we pray: the Lord is with Thee. Who does the Lord refer to in this line? It refers especially to the Holy Spirit. From the first moment of her conception, Our Lady was filled with grace. Grace is the fruit of the Holy Spirit's presence. Sanctifying grace is the effect of the Holy Spirit being sent into our souls. He is like the sun and grace is the radiance of His presence. Our Lady never sinned. She never drove the Holy Spirit from her soul. How will she be able to become the Mother of the Saviour? The Holy Spirit will come upon her. The Holy Spirit enabled her and the whole Church to do more than we can by our own power. The Christian life is a life in the Spirit. The Christian life, having God's grace, is about a personal relationship with the Lord, the giver of life. The Holy Spirit enables us to say, "Jesus is Lord." The Holy Spirit enables us to say, "Abba, Father."
