Thanksgiving Day - October 12 - Mass will begin at 10am

At its heart, Catholic spirituality is Eucharistic. The very word “Eucharist” comes from the Greek eucharistein or eulogein, meaning “thanksgiving,” which recalls an ancient blessing that praised God’s works of creation, redemption and sanctification (cf. CCC 1328). In the Old Testament, bread and wine “were offered in sacrifice among the first fruits” in gratitude to God (CCC 1334). When we celebrate the Eucharist each week, indeed each day, we participate in the supreme act of praise and thanksgiving in which the Church unites herself to Christ’s perfect offering of gratitude to the Father (cf. Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 8). In this way, the Eucharist not only sustains us but also teaches us how to live with hearts attuned to God’s blessings and shaped by gratitude. Thanksgiving, then, is not simply a once-a-year holiday, but the very posture of the Christian soul (cf. Basil the Great, Homily V, In martyrem Julittam).

- Cardinal Leo

Let us pray for peace in the world. Pray the rosary.

Thanksgiving after Mass

Lord, Father all-powerful and ever-living God, I thank You, for even though I am a sinner, your unprofitable servant, not because of my worth but in the kindness of your mercy, You have fed me with the Precious Body & Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. I pray that this Holy Communion may not bring me condemnation and punishment but forgiveness and salvation. May it be a helmet of faith and a shield of good will. May it purify me from evil ways and put an end to my evil passions. May it bring me charity and patience, humility and obedience, and growth in the power to do good. May it be my strong defense against all my enemies, visible and invisible, and the perfect calming of all my evil impulses, bodily and spiritual. May it unite me more closely to you, the One true God, and lead me safely through death to everlasting happiness with You. And I pray that You will lead me, a sinner, to the banquet where you, with Your Son and holy Spirit, are true and perfect light, total fulfillment, everlasting joy, gladness without end, and perfect happiness to your saints. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

- Prayer of St. Thomas Aquinas

Pope & Doctor Pub Night - Saturday, November 14

*Pope Leo was a Roman, Attila was a Hun,
Attila wanted Rome, so Pope Leo, (#1),
Rode out to speak with him to help him change his mind.
It wasn't just Pope Leo, though, but what he saw behind,
That scared that wild invader and made him turn away;
It was a sight of blessed heaven; I hope he's there today.*
Tickets now available! <https://popeanddoctor2026.eventbrite.ca>

Sunday Coffee House - Help Wanted

I would like to encourage more people to get involved in this social activity that builds up the parish. It takes place after all the Masses on Sunday, although the largest crowds come after the 11am Mass. We need volunteers to set up & clean up. And we are most grateful for potluck items, especially of the savoury kind. If you'd like to help, please email: svp.parish.toronto@gmail.com
