Exultate justi in Domino (Lodovico Grossi da Viadana)

Rejoice in the Lord, O you just;

quoniam ipsorum est regnum caelorum.
(Matthew 5:8-9 with verses of Psalm 126)

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Angels, archangels, thrones and dominions,
principalities and powers, celestial virtues,

Pope & Doctor Pub Night
Saturday, November 14 | 7 pm to midnight
For many years, St. Vincent's has been the location of an annual Pop-Up (Pope-Up?) pub that is for that evening the best pub in Toronto. The Pope & Doctor Pub, named for Pope Leo the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church, has always taken place near his feast day. Once again, the wonderful pub sign will hang over the entrance, illuminated by the spotlight. Curated pub music, hot and cold pub food, air hockey, fusbal included in ticket. It's an event for adults (19+). Live music, traditional chili & snacks, cash bar, proceeds to SVP parish, $25/person.
Tickets: https://popeanddoctor2026.eventbrite.ca
The Pope and Doctor pub night tends to run on chili:
Once it was too cold and once-well-it was silly.
Once it ran out and we had to run for food;
Many times your verdicts have rated it as 'good'.
-with apologies from Julia Chili-Childs

Now some one may ask, "Why is it that holiness is a necessary qualification for our being received into heaven? Why is it that the Bible enjoins upon us so strictly to love, fear, and obey God, to be just, honest, meek, pure in heart, forgiving, heavenly-minded, self-denying, humble, and resigned? Man is confessedly weak and corrupt; why then is he enjoined to be so religious, so unearthly? why is he required (in the strong language of Scripture) to become 'a new creature'? Since he is by nature what he is, would it not be an act of greater mercy in God to save him altogether without this holiness, which it is so difficult, yet (as it appears) so necessary for him to possess?"
Now we have no right to ask this question. Surely it is quite enough for a sinner to know, that a way has been opened through God's grace for his salvation, without being informed why that way, and not another way, was chosen by Divine Wisdom. Eternal life is "the gift of God." Undoubtedly He may prescribe the terms on which He will give it; and if He has determined holiness to be the way of life, it is enough; it is not for us to inquire why He has so determined.
Yet the question may be asked reverently, and with a view to enlarge our insight into our own condition and prospects; and in that case the attempt to answer it will be profitable, if it be made soberly. I proceed, therefore, to state one of the reasons, assigned in Scripture, why present holiness is necessary, as the text declares to us, for future happiness.
To be holy is, in our Church's words, to have "the true circumcision of the Spirit;" that is, to be separate from sin, to hate the works of the world, the flesh, and the devil; to take pleasure in keeping God's commandments; to do things as He would have us do them; to live habitually as in the sight of the world to come, as if we had broken the ties of this life, and were dead already. Why cannot we be saved without possessing such a frame and temper of mind?
I answer as follows: That, even supposing a man of unholy life were suffered to enter heaven, he would not be happy there; so that it would be no mercy to permit him to enter.
-from a sermon by Saint John Henry Newman
